ALL SAINTS

Dear Family!

This Sunday the Universal Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints. On Monday, the Church also celebrates All Souls day. I want to thank you for taking part in these beautiful liturgies especially praying for the dead and praying with the families who have lost their loved ones. The Bible teaches us that it is actually a holy thing to pray for the dead. Ecclesiastes 7:2 says, "it is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for that is the end of every mortal, and the living should take it to heart."

In reflecting about the communion of Saints as the Universal Church celebrates All Saints Day, we remember this day as a day of Thanksgiving because Saints are our inspiration.
"For in the marvelous confession of your saints, you make your church fruitful with strength ever new and offer us sure signs of your love.
And that your saving mysteries may be fulfilled,
their examples lends us courage,
their servant prayers sustain in us in all we do."
(Preface II of Saints).

It is also a day of vision. The readings remind us the road-map to the Heart of God. The Universal call to Holiness (Second Vatican) reminds us that we are called to be Saints. We want to join our saints now by walking in their footsteps, and we want to join our saints in eternity. These two things are made possible by a faithful following and interiorizing the summary of Jesus' teaching - The Sermon on the Mount.

God's initial blessing of being 'Blessed' denotes a sublime happiness. All 'Blessed' are joyful because their joy comes from God and the result of their union with God. This 'Blessed Joy' is expressed in Matthew 5:3 is the first of the 50 times in the New Testament and the last being in Revelation 22:14. We need this 'Blessed Joy' in our hearts to be with Jesus and be sent out. "The Joy of the Gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus" (Evangelii Gaudium). May all the Saints continue to live on in and through us.

All Saints Day & All Souls Day at SPSJ
This year All Saints Day falls on a Sunday. Usual masses will be celebrated on this Solemnity. On All Souls Day, which is Monday, October 2nd, we have the usual 2 masses at the church during the day. In addition to that we have a special Mass at the Cemetery at 10am and a special mass at 7pm where we remember all the deceased of our parish in the past year. You are most welcome to bring the pictures of the deceased to the mass and get them blessed.

OCIA at SPSJ
These are the OCIA Candidates for this year: Marta Chun, Jessie Forson, Dominic Fresoli , Thelma Landaverry (OCIA in Spanish), Allison Monzon, Favour Obiaka, Alex Perez, Armani Perez, & John Taylor. Please remember these people and also all the OCIA Team who teach them and journey with them.

Confirmation Dates and First Communion Dates:
It has just been two weeks we have a new Bishop. We are working with the Diocesan office to finalize the date for Confirmation. We will publish the date once we hear from the Diocese. First Communion will be on Saturday, May 1st at 11am.

Father Joseph's Temporary Assignment:
Father Joseph was temporarily asked by the Diocesan Administration to help out the people of Belvidere, NJ in both the worshipping sites of the parish in place of their Pastor Fr. Charles Sebella who is going through a medical procedure. Father Joseph will still be living with us in our rectory but will be helping with their sacramental needs. Please keep both Fr. Charles and Fr. Joseph in your prayers. This is just a temporary assignment, and we hope to have Fr. Joseph back with us ministering for us at the end of November.

Diocesan Programs in the near future:
The Multicultural Mass & Fair (Nov. 7), the Upcoming Adult Faith Formation Classes, & National Black Catholic History Month (Nov.).

POPE LEO XIV TO THE INTERNATIONAL MEETING
'UNARMED AND DISARMING PEACE'
(27 October 2026)

You are gathered in Assisi forty years after the World Day of Prayer for Peace held on 27 October 1986. That event was initiated by Saint John Paul II, who on that occasion emphasized the intrinsic bond between a genuine religious attitude and a keen sense of peace.
After 1989, many believed that globalization would ensure lasting peace for the world. Unfortunately, as I wrote in Magnifica Humanitas, "an almost blind faith was placed in the ability of the markets to generate prosperity, democracy and stability. In reality, rather than automatically generating unity and peace, globalization has provoked fundamentalist, identity-based and nationalistic reactions"

Against this backdrop, there has been "troubling revival of war as an instrument of international politics" (ibid., 190). As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "the accumulation of arms strikes many as a paradoxically suitable way of deterring potential adversaries from war. They see it as the most effective means of ensuring peace among nations" (no. 2315), thus betraying the memory of the twentieth century and the senseless slaughter of millions of human lives. Precisely in these times marked by a "culture of power," there is a need to cultivate the spirit of Assisi, which entails a rejection of the religious justification of war, a spirit of mediation and dialogue, and contemplative reflection combined with creative action in the service of a future of peace.

Yes, peace must once again become the common ideal of all peoples, the guiding star for all our choices, the standard that exposes injustice, and the shared horizon for all.

We must rebuild peace everywhere, not prepare for more wars. War can never be waged in the name of God. For us believers, "to fight in the name of religion means attacking religion itself" (Magnifica Humanitas, 223). There is no such thing as a holy war: only peace is holy.

That is why the journey begun in Assisi as a shared quest for peace is, first and foremost, the path of prayer. Prayer may seem weak in the face of the powers of the world, but it is the humble strength of believers. Let us turn to God, the giver of peace, that he may touch the hearts of those who seek war and terrorism. Let us not forget that prayer is never in vain.

Indeed, prayer is a school of dialogue with God, with people and with all creatures. Let us think of Saint Francis, whose death we have commemorated on his eight-hundredth anniversary. The world needs dialogue. The path of Assisi calls religious leaders to foster a climate of dialogue amongst the faithful and within society, so that the language of arrogance may give way to the language of peace, negotiation and understanding. This will help to "gradually [lead] humanity away from the cycle of violence" (ibid., 221).

Brothers and sisters, may our prayers obtain from God that peace for the world's nations for which we long. May he make us unarmed instruments of his peace. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God" (Mt 5:9).

PILGRIMAGE TO THE MIRACULOUS MEDAL SHRINE IN PHILADELPHIA

The pilgrimage is on Friday, November 6th from 7am to 5:30pm, departing from 137 Roseberry St., Phillipsburg, with a stop at the Reading Terminal Market for lunch & shopping. The cost is $60/person; optional tour cost is: Basilica Shrine & Rosary Walk $15 and Marian Art Museum $12, please write out a separate check for each tour. Contact Camille Bates - 908-319-2719.

DEACON'S CORNER

Sermon on the Mount

The Beatitudes are not a rigid to do list to earn God's favor, but a description of the human character that flows from living in God's grace. Jesus calls his disciples to measure a blessed life by God's values rather than cultural applause. Let us take a look at some of the meanings of the Beatitudes.

The Poor in Spirit: Recognizing our complete spiritual poverty and need for God rather than self-sufficiency opens the door to the kingdom of heaven.

Those Who Mourn: Honest grief over personal sin, brokenness, and the pain of the world is met with divine comfort.

The Meek: Strength under controlling gentleness and humility instead of aggression or manipulation, inherits the earth.

Those Who Hunger and Thirst for Righteousness: An active, deep longing for God's justice and moral alignment is eventually satisfied.

The Merciful: Showing compassion and active love to others mirrors God's own heart and invites mercy in return.

The Pure in Heart: Single-minded devotion and sincerity, free from hypocrisy or hidden malice, allow us to truly perceive God.

The Peacemakers: Active reconciliation in a fractured world identifies followers as true children of God.

The Persecuted: Suffering or rejection for standing up for righteousness, for Christ's sake is not a sign of failure, but a mark of kingdom citizenship and great heavenly reward.

The revelation of God's life is an invitation that calls for a response. If we choose to follow Jesus into God's abundant life, we will conform to the way this kingdom works, its values and priorities.

✝ God Bless ✝

NOTICIAS EN ESPAÑOL DEL ESCRITORIO DEL P. ANTONY

DIA DE TODOS LOS SANTOS

¡Querida familia!

Este domingo, la Iglesia universal celebra la solemnidad de Todos los Santos. El lunes, la Iglesia celebra también el Día de los Fieles Difuntos. Quiero agradecerles por participar en estas hermosas liturgias, especialmente por orar por los difuntos y por acompañar en la oración a las familias que han perdido a sus seres queridos. La Biblia nos enseña que es, en efecto, un acto santo orar por los difuntos. El libro del Eclesiastés, en el capítulo 7, versículo 2, dice: «Más vale ir a una casa de duelo que a una casa de banquete; pues ese es el fin de todo ser humano, y los que viven deben tenerlo presente».

Al reflexionar sobre la comunión de los santos, mientras la Iglesia universal celebra el Día de Todos los Santos, recordamos esta jornada como un día de acción de gracias, pues los santos son nuestra inspiración.
«Porque en la admirable confesión de tus santos haces fructificar a tu Iglesia con una fuerza siempre nueva y nos ofreces pruebas seguras de tu amor.
Y, para que se cumplan tus misterios de salvación, su ejemplo nos infunde valentía, y sus oraciones nos sostienen en todo lo que hacemos».
(Prefacio II de los santos).

Es también un día de visión. Las lecturas nos recuerdan la hoja de ruta hacia el Corazón de Dios. La llamada universal a la santidad (del Concilio Vaticano II) nos recuerda que estamos llamados a ser santos. Queremos unirnos a nuestros santos desde ahora, siguiendo sus pasos, y deseamos encontrarnos con ellos en la eternidad. Esto es posible gracias a un seguimiento fiel y a la interiorización de la síntesis de las enseñanzas de Jesús: el Sermón de la Montaña.

La bendición inicial de ser «bienaventurado» denota una felicidad sublime. Todos los «bienaventurados» rebosan de alegría, pues esta proviene de Dios y es fruto de su unión con Él. Esta «alegría bienaventurada» se manifiesta en Mateo 5,3 —la primera de las 50 menciones que aparecen en el Nuevo Testamento, cuya última referencia se encuentra en Apocalipsis 22,14—. Necesitamos esta «alegría bienaventurada» en nuestros corazones para estar con Jesús y ser enviados a la misión. «La alegría del Evangelio llena el corazón y la vida entera de los que se encuentran con Jesús» (Evangelii Gaudium). Que todos los santos sigan viviendo en nosotros y a través de nosotros.

Día de Todos los Santos y Día de los Fieles Difuntos en SPSJ

Este año, el Día de Todos los Santos cae en domingo. Se celebrarán las misas habituales con motivo de esta solemnidad. El Día de los Fieles Difuntos, que es el lunes 2 de octubre, tendremos las dos misas de costumbre en la iglesia a lo largo del día. Además, habrá una misa especial en el cementerio a las 10am y otra a las 7pm, en la que recordaremos a todos los difuntos de nuestra parroquia fallecidos durante el último año. Les invitamos a traer fotografías de sus seres queridos fallecidos a la misa para que sean bendecidas.

OCIA en SPSJ

Estos son los candidatos al OCIA para este año: Marta Chun, Jessie Forson, Dominic Fresoli, Thelma Landaverry (OCIA en español), Allison Monzon, Favour Obiaka, Alex Pérez, Armani Pérez y John Taylor. Por favor, tengan presentes a estas personas, así como a todo el equipo del OCIA que les imparte formación y los acompaña en su camino.

Fechas para la Confirmación y la Primera Comunión:
Hace apenas dos semanas que contamos con un nuevo obispo. Estamos trabajando con la oficina diocesana para concretar la fecha de la Confirmación. Publicaremos la fecha una vez que recibamos noticias de la diócesis. La primera comunión será el sábado 1 de mayo a las 11 de la mañana.

Asignación temporal del padre Joseph:
La administración diocesana ha solicitado al padre Joseph que preste ayuda temporalmente a la comunidad de Belvedere —en ambos lugares de culto de la parroquia—, sustituyendo al párroco, el padre Charles Sebella, quien se someterá a un procedimiento médico. El padre Joseph seguirá residiendo con nosotros en la casa parroquial, pero colaborará en la atención de las necesidades sacramentales de dicha comunidad. Por favor, tengan presentes al padre Charles y al padre Joseph en sus oraciones. Se trata de una asignación temporal; esperamos que el padre Joseph esté de vuelta con nosotros, retomando su ministerio aquí, a finales de noviembre.

Programas Diocesanos en el futuro cercano:
Misa y Feria Multicultural (7 de noviembre).
